

KELLER FOUNDATIONS EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY / AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY STATEMENT

The Company will employ persons and make employment related decisions without regard to race, color, religion, ancestry, medical condition, genetic information, family, or marital status, national or ethnic origin, age, sex, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, veteran or military status, physical or mental disability, pardon convictions or any other basis prohibited by law. The Company will take affirmative action to ensure that the Policy is implemented, particularly with regards to: application procedures, employment, upgrading, promotion, demotion, transfer, rehire, job assignment and classification, recruitment, recruitment advertising, layoff, termination, compensation, leave, fringe benefits, social activities, training, and working conditions.

The Company will continue to notify employment entities and agencies, and in employment opportunity announcements, that the foregoing is Company Policy; and that all applicants and employees will continue to be compensated, trained, advanced, demoted, terminated, hired, and transferred solely based on the individual's merit.

All present employees are requested to encourage minorities, women, veterans, and qualified disabled persons to apply for employment with the Company or to apply for training in an approved On-the-Job Training or Apprenticeship Program.

The Company will provide reasonable accommodations for qualified disabled individuals. Any applicant or employee requiring an accommodation to perform the essential functions of a position should contact the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer and request such an accommodation. The Company will then investigate and identify possible accommodations. If the accommodation is reasonable then the Company will make the accommodation.

The Company will ensure and maintain a working environment free of harassment, and will prohibit its supervisors, managers, coworkers and third parties such as customers or vendors, from participating in discrimination, and retaliation at all job-sites, and in all facilities at which employees are assigned to work. In addition, this policy protects all contractors, unpaid interns and volunteers that may be representing the company. This policy will be rigidly enforced at all times. Examples of misconduct include, but are not limited to, sexual harassment, racial, ethnic, or religious slurs. Any violation of the Policy should be reported immediately to a supervisor or to the Company's EEO Officer. Supervisors who receive complaints must report them to Human Resources immediately. All necessary measures shall be taken to include confidentiality to the greatest extent possible. In addition, investigations will be handled by a qualified person, who will be required to follow due process with necessary documentation and a timely closure. There will be a Zero Tolerance policy in place for retaliation for bringing forth a complaint or participating in an investigation of a complaint.

The Company will ensure that all job sites and facilities, including company activities are non-segregated, except that separate or single-user toilets and necessary changing facilities shall be provided to assure privacy between genders.

The Company will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information.

The Company's Equal Employment Opportunity Officer's name and address is:

Tom Rodgers, Head, Human Resources

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER USERRA THE UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT AND REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT

USERRA protects the job rights of individuals who voluntarily or involuntarily leave employment positions to undertake military service or certain types of service in the National Disaster Medical System. USERRA also prohibits employers from discriminating against past and present members of the uniformed services, and applicants to the uniformed services.

REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

You have the right to be reemployed in your civilian job if you leave that job to perform service in the uniformed service and:

- ☆ you ensure that your employer receives advance written or verbal notice of your service;
- ☆ you have five years or less of cumulative service in the uniformed services while with that particular employer;
- ☆ you return to work or apply for reemployment in a timely manner after conclusion of service; and
- ☆ you have not been separated from service with a disqualifying discharge or under other than honorable conditions.

If you are eligible to be reemployed, you must be restored to the job and benefits you would have attained if you had not been absent due to military service or, in some cases, a comparable job.

RIGHT TO BE FREE FROM DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION

If you:

- ☆ are a past or present member of the uniformed service;
- ☆ have applied for membership in the uniformed service; or
- ☆ are obligated to serve in the uniformed service;

then an employer may not deny you:

- ☆ initial employment;
- ☆ reemployment;
- ☆ retention in employment;
- ☆ promotion; or
- ☆ any benefit of employment

because of this status.

In addition, an employer may not retaliate against anyone assisting in the enforcement of USERRA rights, including testifying or making a statement in connection with a proceeding under USERRA, even if that person has no service connection.

HEALTH INSURANCE PROTECTION

- ☆ If you leave your job to perform military service, you have the right to elect to continue your existing employer-based health plan coverage for you and your dependents for up to 24 months while in the military.
- ☆ Even if you don't elect to continue coverage during your military service, you have the right to be reinstated in your employer's health plan when you are reemployed, generally without any waiting periods or exclusions (e.g., pre-existing condition exclusions) except for service-connected illnesses or injuries.

ENFORCEMENT

- ☆ The U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of USERRA violations.
- ☆ For assistance in filing a complaint, or for any other information on USERRA, contact VETS at 1-866-4-USA-DOL or visit its website at <http://www.dol.gov/vets>. An interactive online USERRA Advisor can be viewed at <http://www.dol.gov/elaws/userra.htm>.
- ☆ If you file a complaint with VETS and VETS is unable to resolve it, you may request that your case be referred to the Department of Justice or the Office of Special Counsel, as applicable, for representation.
- ☆ You may also bypass the VETS process and bring a civil action against an employer for violations of USERRA.

The rights listed here may vary depending on the circumstances. The text of this notice was prepared by VETS, and may be viewed on the internet at this address: <http://www.dol.gov/vets/programs/userra/poster.htm>. Federal law requires employers to notify employees of their rights under USERRA, and employers may meet this requirement by displaying the text of this notice where they customarily place notices for employees.
